

Donna Newlun

Graphic Designer | UX/UI • Branding • Print Layout

www.portfoliol.com

donna.newlun@snhu.edu

(555)555-5555

Technical Skills

Tools

- » Illustrator
- » Photoshop
- » InDesign
- » Figma
- » XD

UX Design

- » Wireframing
- » Prototyping
- » User Flows
- » Accessibility
- » Usability Testing
- » User Research

Design

- » Typography
- » Color Theory
- » Layout
- » Branding
- » Visual Hierarchy
- » Multi-Channel Design
- » Print Design
- » UX/UI Design

Other

- » Writing
- » Communication

Awards & Recognitions

SNHU

- » President's List
- » Honor Roll

Professional Profile

I create thoughtful, accessible designs that make information easier to understand and experiences more meaningful. In UX/UI, branding, and print layout, I use empathy, creativity, and strategy to create work that connects with the people it is designed for.

Education

Southern New Hampshire University (SNHU)

Bachelor of Arts | Graphic Design and Media Arts

Concentration: User Experience Design | Minor: Marketing | GPA: 4.0

Expected Graduation: September 2026

Design Experience

Freelance Graphic Designer

Self-Employed | 2025–Present

Design projects include:

- YouTube branding, thumbnail design, digital graphics
- Business card design, print materials
- Brand identity

Professional Experience

Freelance Writer

Self-employed | 2017–2019

- Fiction and Non-Fiction
- Manuscripts, Short Stories, Poetry & Blog Posts

Housing Specialist

Logan County Housing Authority | 1999-2001

- Designed applications for the Public Housing and Section 8 Programs
- Calculated rent, lease signings, and recertifications for the programs
- Inspected apartments and handled maintenance requests

Store Manager

Illico | 1996-1998

- Employee management including hiring
- Ordering, inventory, and stocking
- Scheduling and day-to-day operations